The MBA Leadership and Soft Skills is focused primarily on practically applicable management knowledge that is necessary to perform managerial functions.

The aim of this speciality is to teach students not only to manage, but above all lead - to understand how to become a great leader and effectively motivate their employees to achieve effective results. This focuses on the development and training of soft skills, such as organisational, leadership and communication skills. Students will also learn how to approach conflict resolution, analytical and complex thinking, or the ability to reflect and improve work efficiency.

The MBA Leadership and Soft Skills includes the following beyond the basic and optional modules: Leadership, Motivation and Evaluation of Employees and Managerial Psychology.

Master of Business Administration
