European School of Business & Management (ESBM)

it is based on the experience of prestigious foreign universities and continues the tradition of the Oxford education system. Studying at ESBM is mainly focused on practical skills and analytical thinking.

Study anytime
and from anywhere.

MSc - Master of Science

The Master of Science (MSc) is a postgraduate educational program, thanks to which you will get a comprehensive overview of current trends in the chosen field with a focus on their development in the future. Thanks to the practical way of education and the narrow focus of the programs makes the study suitable for all those who want to expand their knowledge and skills in the given issue. Course is conducted by professional lecturers who are selected experts on specific topics.

Offer of MSc specializations

Conditions of admission

A condition for admission to the MSc program is a completed university education at least at the bachelor's level, or professional education in the BBA program and BSc. However, the applicant may be granted an exception if he can prove his managerial experience.

Start of teaching

Course can be started at any time throughout the year. There is no need to wait for the start of your studies or to worry that your chosen program will not open. You can choose any specialization at ESBM and start studying at any time.

Form of study

To improve the quality of MSc education, ESBM uses a combination of online study with the Oxford education model. This type is peculiar mainly to foreign universities and differs from Czech academic studies mainly in its practical focus.

Course of study

The MSc study lasts 1 year and is conducted online in combination with interactive seminars. It is divided into 3 blocks and each block is further divided into individual modules which are led by professional lecturers. The output for each block is seminar papers or case studies. The study is concluded with the preparation of the final thesis and its defense. After fulfilling all the requirements, the graduate will receive the professional MSc. degree, which is listed after the name.

1. BLOCK - BASIC

5 MODULES,
2 COURSE DAYS

The basic block is identical for all students and is divided into two teaching days. It contains 5 basic modules: Project Management, Human Resource Management, Fundamentals of Management, Finance and Economics, Lean Management.

2. BLOCK - SPECIALIZED

3 MODULES,
1 COURSE DAY

In the second block, each student chooses one of the specializations on offer. Each specialization contains three modules that the student completes during 1 course day.

3 BLOCK - OPTIONAL

2 MODULES,
1 COURSE DAY

In the third block, each student again chooses two from a wide range of optional modules, the course of which takes place within 1 course day.

FINAL THESES

DEFENSE

The study is concluded with the preparation of the final thesis and its defense.
